#007 Sobia Zaidi:Connection Exercise 3: Introduction

One person performing and the spectators also play an active role in this exercise. This exercise should only be done in the bus.

Take any bus to Central Station, from your nearest bus stop

Once you enter the bus shake hand with the driver and introduce yourself by saying your name, your nationality and what you do

Then start walking towards the end of the bus but as you walk you should shake hands and introduce yourself in the same manner to all the passengers who you encounter in your way

Once you reach the end take a seat if there is no seat available you stay standing

Once the bus reaches the central station get off the bus and take the next bus going to the same bus stop you came from

Once you get in the bus, you repeat the same

When you reach the bus reaches your stop get off the bus
