#018:Roekoe M: BROKEN STREETLIGHT PARTY (2014)

- Look for a broken streetlight that flashes, this will be your light system for the party.
- Organize an online event. The party has to take place in the evening when the lights are on.
- Invite friends & strangers!
- Make a poster to announce the party and print it out (it can be black & white and on A4- paper)
- Glue the posters on the lightspoles in the street 24 hours before the event starts.
- Make sure the location of the party is clear.
- Fix a small / portable sound system.
- It is important to dance, but please be nice to the neighbours!
- Make a cool playlist for the party. Include: Streetlight by John Maus!
- Wait...
- BYOB & DANCE!!!!!!
