#075:Chris Wildrick: Making Lines Longer (2016)

The performer will wait in various lines throughout the city over the course of a day, making those lines longer by one person, thus changing the aesthetic and composition of the line.

When you performed this work, please don't forget to send a response (text, photo or video, whatever you choose) to done@theconceptbank.org. We will archive it (anonymously) and we will also forward it to the artist. Thanks and we hope you will visit us again.
